Benefits of Supporting OARS Community Transitions

Being a supporter of OARS Community Transitions primarily benefits other people. These are some of the most disadvantaged people living in our communities today. We provide a comprehensive array of services for:

- people in prison
- those leaving prison
- their partners, children and wider families
- other disadvantaged people in the community
- Our services assist to reduce crime in the community.

Our services assist to reduce crime in the community. If you would like to make a donation you can do so by filling in the form and returning it to us. Donations $2 and over are tax deductible.
